

ARE YOU PREPARED??

Do you know how well the state, county, school district, township are prepared to operate effectively with such disasters?

Do you have a plan for evacuation of yourself and family?

Do you have an immediate designated primary and alternate local location for your family to join together?

Do you have a distant designated primary and alternate location for your family to evacuate to?

Do you know how and where your school children will be re-located during an emergency?

Do you have identification cards, medical kit, cash, food, clothing, etc. pre-assembled for evacuation?

Do you have a relative or friend, in a distant state, designated to receive calls from family so that accountability is achieved?

Do you have a cell phone with a charger for a car?

Do you keep you home cell phone charger in your bedroom upstairs or in a more convenient location downstairs?

Do you and your family have a ‘No Questions Asked’ code word to alert that there is an immediate threat?

Do you have a plan for your pet’s evacuation?

Dickinson Township is hosting presentations by the County, Carlisle Area School District and Township to address these and many more issues. These presentations are for Dickinson Township resident adults only and we ask that you call to reserve seating. We anticipate a large number to respond and therefore may have to change the presentation location.

When: Thursday, October 25, 2007
Where: Dickinson Township Municipal Building
Time: 6:00 – 9:00 P.M.
For reservations please contact:
